“Their project management expertise is second-to-none. Projects Dos integrated seamlessly into our team, providing strategic oversight and clear communication that ensured we achieved the best possible outcome.”

Who we are

Projects Dos is a dynamic, privately-owned property development and project management firm based in South East Queensland. We provide end-to-end tailored consultancy services across property advisory, development management, and project management.

Our reputation is built on trusted relationships and the ability to lead complex projects from strategy through delivery. Founders Ben and Ricky Fehervary bring complementary strengths and a strong network of consultants, contractors, and industry partners, ensuring outstanding results for our clients.

Ben Fehervary

Director

With over 15 years of experience across Australia and the UK, Ben specialises in multi-residential, commercial, educational, and complex international fit-outs. He excels in procurement, program leadership, and stakeholder engagement, managing projects valued at up to $70m.

Ricky Fehervary

Director

With over 30 years of experience in property and construction, Ricky has delivered hundreds of residential and multi-residential projects. His strengths lie in approvals, procurement, and cultivating long-term industry relationships that ensure strong project outcomes.
